News Around Town

By Mrs. Calvin Robinson

I liked this one:

"My wife," said a man, "suggested that I take up a new sport."

"What a sweet, thoughtful girl," said his friend enviously. "Did she suggest anything?"

"Yes. Say, by the way, what is Russian roulette?"

FLASH: Two local people report getting ripe tomatoes this week out of their gardens. Wilson Gowin sent word he had two ripe tomatoes June 20. And J. H. Tolley had the same!

Gardens should really "take off" now, after the splendid rains. We went to a considerable distance in the South last week-end, and were amazed at how much drier they were than here. Rains seem to have been needed all over.

At the meeting of the Town Council on Monday night, a name was formally given to the street running from opposite Carver-Price H. S. to Court Street. It was designated as "Cawthon Avenue," in honor of the late J. W. Cawthon, former town manager.

District VII, Virginia Conference of Social Work held its fourth quarterly meeting at Lunenburg Court House on June 14. Hon. J. D. Haygood, of Clover, Va., discussed some of the highlights of the 1956 General Assembly legislation affecting social work. The State Conference theme adopted by the State Board at its recent meeting held in Roanoke, was, "Let Virginians Know." Mrs. Hazel R. Mann, Superintendent of the Welfare Department of Appomattox County and program chairman, attended the meeting.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Childers celebrated Fathers Day on Sunday at the Childers home, with a luncheon in picnic style on the lawn. Among those present were: Mrs. W. M. Slusher, Mrs. W. E. McCarthy, Jr.; Mrs. Arnold Childers and son, Tommy; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Childers and children, all of Lynchburg; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Childers and family, of Appomattox; Mrs. Roger Pillow and daughter, Sandra, of Spout Spring; Grover Childers, and Helen Childers of Appomattox. The Rev. Aaron D. Smith was also a guest at the celebration.

We received a sweet letter this week from our dear friend, Mrs. Charles H. Coleman. She is the widow of the Confederate veteran, C. H. Coleman, who passed away a few years back at the age of 103, I think it was. Anyway, he was one of the last surviving veterans of Gettysburg, and next to the last in Appomattox County. Mrs. Coleman will be 95, come October 18. Guess how she spends much of her time now? sending cards of remembrance to the sick and shut-ins, and in prayers for us all! Her eyesight and hearing are not so well at her years gone by, but we do pray that she will be with us many more years.

There will be a Lawn Party at the Evergreen School on Saturday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock. Besides home-made ice cream, hot dogs, cold plates, sot drinks, coffee and tea will be sold. This is being sponsored by the Richwood Home Demonstration Club.

Reminder: The Town is now collecting garbage twice each week. This will continue over the summer months. Mondays and Thursdays are the days. We saw very few garbage cans out this morning, so we remind you to take advantage of this town service.

We have been called out of the State for about ten days. Due to this fact, we will close during that time. However, we will reopen immediately upon our return, and will again welcome you to patronize us. We thank you for the growing number who have been to enjoy our food.

FORESTRY GRANT AWARDED

The Old Dominion Foundation, which was founded and endowed by Paul Mellon, has granted to the Virginia Division of Forestry $27,000 for use in permitting selected foresters within the organization to study advanced forestry matters at outstanding universities and research stations, according to an announcement released today by State Forester George W. Dean. The grant from the Foundation is for a three-year period, Mr. Dean said this would allow approximately $3,000 per man for three men for each of the three years to spend about six months on advanced study in specialized fields of forestry, such as the genetics of trees, silviculture of the southern pines and yellow poplar, management of Piedmont and mountain hardwoods, together with similar studies.

Davidson Hits At Fast Pace

Crawford ("Miff") Davidson, Appomattox pro baseball star, has been on a hitting rampage of late with the Chattanooga Lookouts of the Southern Association.

The big outfielder has a total of 60 runs batted in for the season, and 16 of them have come this week. In a doubleheader Monday, he had 7 RBI's. Tuesday he hit a home run, single and fielder's choice to add 5 more RBI's. Yesterday he continued the fast pace with two hits, one a home run, to knock in four more runs.

Davidson now has 13 home runs for the season.

CALL FOR CRACK-DOWN ON SPEEDERS

Chicago, Ill.- With the nation facing an all-time high traffic death record this year, two leading traffic safety organizations today called for a crack-down enforcement policy during the Fourth of July holiday.

The National Safety Council and the International Association of Chiefs of Police said that appeals to driver responsibility must be supplemented by strict enforcement of the law to curb the heedless and reckless minority.

Such action is the only effective way to hold down the death toll on an immediate and short-term basis, the two traffic safety groups said.

The joint enforcement recommendations for the 30-hour Fourth of July period were:

1. Cancel all days off for police and put every available officer on duty. Assign as many personnel as possible in plain clothes and unmarked cars to traffic patrol, especially from 6 P. M. to midnight on Tuesday and Wednesday.

2. Concentrate manpower on the high volume or high speed streets and highways where serious accidents are most likely to occur.

3. Concentrate on hazardous moving violations, especially speeding. Be alert for erratic driving and other evidence of evening-hour driving after drinking.

4. Coordinate the effort with other enforcement agencies.

5. Use whatever other enforcement means are available locally, such as radar.

6. Publicize the program in advanse so motorists will understand and cooperate with the objective.

The Council estimates that there will be 50 million vehicles on the move during the holiday. Usually extra travel means extra hazard.

LOCAL POSTMASTER GIVES VACATION TIP

Summertime is synonymous with vacation time for the vast number of Americans who leave their homes for one or two weeks in the months of June, July and August in search of relaxation or adventures.

To the thief or vandal, however, summertime means a heavy schedule of long work hours. Drawn blinds, accumulated newspapers, and stuffed mailboxes constitute an open-house invitation to such predatory prowlers.

Therefore, during your vacation, Postmaster E. LeRoy Smith suggests that you notify the Appomattox Post Office to either forward your mail to your summer address or hold all mail at the post office until you return home.

The Post Office will be happy to contribute to the peace of mind of local vacationers by providing this free precautionary service, the local postmaster said.

Garden Club Meets Monday

The June meeting of the Appomattox Garden Club will be held in the Appomattox Elementary School auditorium Monday, June 25, at 7:30 P. M. The arrangement will be "As You Like It," using any flower, foliage, container or line you choose. The judges will be appointed at the beginning of the meeting, and it is hoped that all members will come and bring an arrangement and many specimens.

Mrs. Herman Schweizer will show slides taken on her interesting trips to the West. Visitors are always welcome at any meetings

When the Garden Club met May 28, at 8:00 in the high school cafeteria, it was decided to meet during the three summer months in order to be able to display lovely summer flowers. It was also decided to meet at the Elementary School in the future, either in the auditorium or in the cafeteria, and to hold meetings at 7:30 P. M.

At the last meeting, the club was fortunate to have Mrs. Goode Robinson, of Lynchburg. Her talk to the club about peonies. The specimens of her own peonies which she brought to show the club, together with the mass arrangements and many beautiful specimens of spring flowers brought by members, turned the cafeteria into a miniature spring flower show.

Mrs. Robinson judged the flowers and the following ribbons were awarded:

Mass arrangements in the colorful manner, Mrs. Robert Hubbard, blue; Miss Laura Mottley, blue, and Mrs. A. R. Harwood, Jr., blue.

Arrangement of roses other foliage permitted: Mrs. H. R. Martin, red; Mrs. Robert Hubbard, red; Mrs. A. J. Zastrow, yellow; Mrs. Herman Schweizer, red.

Corsage for younger set, Mrs. K. C. Gregory, blue.
